1. The Slovene section of the Ministry of New Territories is located in Postojna and has under its jurisdiction all liberated territories north of Trieste. It is directly responsible to the Ministry itself which is still located in Opatija.
2. In early August 1950 a gradual reduction of personnel in the section was begun. As of 1 October three-quarters of the employees had been discharged. It is believed that there will be still more dismissals.
3. The first to be discharged were former farmers and, at a later date, former factory workers will be dismissed. In all cases the most incompetent workers were released except for those few who had good political connections.
